

NJAET's 25th Annual Conference
Celebrating 25 Tech-Tastic Years Together
Saturday, October 20, 2012
8:00 AM - 3:00 PM

NEW LOCATION!

Saint Dominic School
250 Old Squan Road
Brick, NJ 08724

NJAET's 25th Annual Conference Celebrating 25 Tech-Tastic Years Together offers educators, pre-service teachers and administrators the opportunity to earn five (5) professional development hours as they learn new skills and techniques for working with students and technology. A light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

There are a wide variety of sessions available and there will be a keynote by the ever popular Dave Marra of Apple. Web 2.0 tools, podcasting, tablets in the classroom, free online tools, and interactive whiteboards are just some of the sessions educators can learn more about. Join us for an exciting day of networking with colleagues from around New Jersey as you enhance your ability to enrich your classroom and school.
